

Contents

Foreword by Nicholas D. Frankovits and Leila Gay Evans vii

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

1 Getting an Idea 3

Look for a Problem to Solve 4

Break Problems into Smaller Parts 5

Think about Improving Something You Already Enjoy 7

Think about Solving a Community Problem 11

Think about the Needs of Others 13

Find an Idea Through Research 15

Find a Use for Something You Discover 18

Is Your Idea an Invention? 20

Activities 20

2 Keeping a Journal or an Inventor's Log and

Writing a Report 23

Logs and Journals 23

Reports 34

Inventor's Logs, Journals, and Reports as Part of a Display 35

Activities 36

3	Making a Model	37
	Start with a Sketch	39
	Make a List of Materials	39
	List the Tools You Will Need	40
	Estimate Costs	41
	Inventory Your Skills and Acquire Others	41
	Set up a Workshop	42
	Ask for Help and Be Safe	43
	Make a Scale Model	45
	Activities	46
4	Naming Your Invention	50
	Name Your Invention after Yourself	50
	Name Your Invention for What It Does	51
	Use Word Tricks in Naming Your Invention	52
	Name Your Invention for Its Sound	53
	Name Your Invention for Its Feel	53
	Give Your Invention a Catchy Name	54
	Activities	56
5	Participating in Competitions, Programs, and Camps	57
	What You Can Gain by Entering an Invention Contest	58
	Preparing for Competition	58
	Camps	65
	Activities	65
6	Inventing as a Team	66
	Teamwork Calls for Cooperation and Compromise	66
	Small Teams	70
	Large Teams	71
	Activities	73
7	Learning with a Mentor	74
	Mentors Are Guides	74
	School Mentor Programs	77
	Mentors from the Business Community	78
	Activities	81

8	Patenting an Invention	82
	How Inventions Are Patented	82
	The Patent Search	83
	Types of Patents	85
	Patent Applications	90
	Patent Infringement	91
	Activities	94
9	Registering a Trademark	95
	Trademarks Are All Around You	95
	Trademark Symbols	95
	Types of Trademarks	96
	Applying for a Trademark	97
	Trademarks instead of Patents	98
	Activities	101
10	Manufacturing, Packaging, and Selling an Invention	102
	Product Development	105
	Find the Right Company to Manufacture Your Invention	109
	Selling Your Invention	109
	Licensing Your Invention	111
	Activities	114
	Appendix A: Suggested Reading	116
	Appendix B: Useful Web Sites	117
	Appendix C: Invention Competitions, Programs, and Camps	119
	Photo Credits	134
	Index	129

